A Loss To The Glades

A friend to man—Dr. Sam Hill knew God; he was intimate with God; he lived as he knew God lived; he was a daily example to his people; his sympathy and understanding he displayed towards another's problems.

Though retired from a life of religious endeavor in preaching, teaching and administrative duties, Dr. Hill found happiness in his pastorate at the First Baptist Church.

His imagination brought forth plans for his own church and for advancement of religious life of the community, especially with young people.

A man of ideas and a student of human nature, he readily engaged the confidence of men of ability and inspired wholehearted efforts in behalf of Christianity in the community.

The community is better in having known him; the members of the church are better in having known him; the members of the church are better in having known him.

"It evokes a higher plane of individual and community thought."

One rooming house of 30 rooms was also leased at 733 S. W. Avenue E for $30,000.

Total building permits for the month of January were $138,950, against $90,050 for the same month in '59.

Commissioner Doyle Conner Greeted By Crowds On Glades Inspection Tour

The eyes of the nation are directed to this area because more pounds of sugar per acre are produced than in any other area in the U. S., and in any way our department can help, we will. I consider Palm Beach County one of our foremost agricultural counties; it is most diversified.

No state figure visiting the Glades has been accorded the opportunity to visit with more citizens in so short a time in recent years, and the expressed desire of the Commissioner to demonstrate that "I am everybody's Commissioner, both those who supported me and those who were on the other side of the fence" was given the opportunity to bloom.

Some who voted contrary recently were prominent in councils and public appearances of the distinguished visitor.

Among those invited to the luncheon were the Palm Beach County Delegation, both representatives of the Senate and House, and Representative Allen Markham of Oklawaha.

Rogers Tells Dean Rusk, We're "Giving Castro American Dollars—Endangering Agricultural Industry"

Congressman Paul G. Rogers of Florida today requested Secretary of State Dean Rusk to act to stop Cuban imports into the United States.

The Florida Congressman requested the Secretary to "take a personal interest to see that action is taken immediately to stop the flow of dollars to Castro by a ban on all Cuban imports into our country."

"Not only are we giving Castro American dollars with which to help finance his control of the Cuban people but we are endangering our own agricultural industry," Congressman Rogers stated.

"Since breaking off diplomatic relations with the Castro government we have been without our usual inspection services at the point of shipment to Cuba. Without this on-the-spot check of produce in Cuba it is difficult to insure an effective quarantine against pests and plant diseases which could harm our own agriculture industry."

This matter is too important to the economy of Florida for our government to delay in taking action to stop these imports," Congressman Rogers concluded.

More Cheap Publicity!

CBS and Ed Murrow must be getting concerned about Ed's confirmation for a job which deals with our international relations, for:

We have information from an unimpeachable source that CBS and Ed are promoting a nationally televised forum on the Harvest of Shame provided Senator Holland will lend the dignity of his presence to such a panel.

Our information is that the Senator has decided not to allow the use of his name to further advertise the travesty of "documented film."

Bravo to the Senator and his refusal to mix with fifth, even that promoted by CBS in automatic misuse of the "franchise" given by all the American people.

His selection of "friends" lends strength to a confidence matured through years of association with Legionnaire, Governor and US Senator Spessard Holland.

"Tom brought home the bacon."

Senator Spessard Holland has "spoken out" with emphasis on his ideas of Ed Murrow and CBS as displayed in the enforced showing of the film The Harvest of Shame—Ed's and CBS's harrow are sure, how.

Dignified Senatorial language, however softly spoken, may be interpreted in understandable language as a "Harvest of Shame" He to be comes "fast and loose with the truth" when spoken on the floor of the US Senate, by U. S. Senator Spessard Holland.

"Unethical and dangerous to society." It may well be remembered that the policy of the Glades of the US Commission is its original resolution—not, as some interpreted, "The hurt feelings of a community."

The Senator told his fellow members, in speaking about CBS's responsibility, "they continue to actively cooperate in promoting the showing of this film—they made it impossible for me to feel that they are pro- quaring with the caution and fair play which the American public has a right to expect from those who hold and use a valuable franchise given by all the American people" (the emphasis is ours).

"Senator Holland also said, 'those interviews and films which claim to support the impression the producers wish to create were deleted; everything not supporting that view was excluded.'"

Our senior Senator quoted the Senator from New Jersey who has visited the Glades, Mr. Harrison Williams as follows: "Florida is probably the most enlightened state—in the total picture of migrant state problems. They are concerned."

They are remembering the forgotten people."

The Senator replied to specific charges in the Senate. Approximately one of 600 children of migrant labor parents finishes grade school, approximately 1 of every 5,000 finish high school. There is no record of such a child ever receiving a college diploma (2) There is no record of such a child ever receiving a college diploma (2) There is no record of such a child ever receiving a college diploma (2)

What Ed actually said is that "rooms are $15 per week per room."

That's the man the Council of Churches and other "good" organizations are supporting for head of the US Public Relations Bureau.

They continue to support and promote "fast and loose with the truth" actions as well as actions "perhaps more dangerous to a free society."

If you admire your Senator's attitude on the floor of the Senate, write him and the economy of Florida for our government to delay in taking action to stop these imports," Congressman Rogers concluded.

OPEN SEASON YEAR 'ROUND

7-0-1 SEASON

National Review supplies a significant report on the experience of the Right-to-Works laws (which provide that each worker can decide for himself whether or not to join a union, and is legally protected from coercion by either management or the union) in states where they played a role in last November's elections. "The so-called National Council for Industrial Peace, an AFL-CIO front for compulsory unionism, made Right-to-Work an issue in seven states, in the hope of defeating candidates and incumbents who upheld voluntary unionism. In Indiana, Ntah, Kansas, New Mexico, Vermont, Oklahoma, and Virginia, Right-to-Work forces were swept to victory. In Delaware, voters elected a governor opposed to Right-to-Work while retaining a legislative majority in favor of it."

Putting the results in box-score form, Right-to-Work had a 7-0-1 season — that is, it won seven contests, lost none, and tied one. That's an impressive record by any standard. If Right-to-Work were a football team, it would have been a cinch for a major bowl bid. It looks as if the American electorate thinks people should have freedom of choice when it comes to unionism — just as they have freedom of choice in deciding to join or not to join other private institutions and organizations.

USDA Club Hears Palm Authority

J. Frank Joyner, eminent authority on palms, spoke to the Everglades USDA Club at the regular monthly meeting, Wednesday, February 1, at the Community Building, in Canal Point.

Dr. Joyner, Research Agronomist with the Cotton and Coddage Fibers Branch, USDA, Everglades Experiment Station, became interested in palms in the early 1930's while employed as secretary-traveling companion to Dr. O. F. Cook, Founder of the Bureau of Plant Exploration, and authority on tropical plants. His interest has expanded with his knowledge, through the years, stimulating extensive research; the ultimate result of which makes him an outstanding authority on the subject.

One of the many interesting features and facts pointed out by Mr. Joyner, is that 15 to 18 species of palms are native to the United States. Of this number 12 occur in our state; Florida. (One in California). Contrary to popular opinion, some of the hardy palms can be grown outdoors along the coast, as far north as North Carolina and Virginia, inland to Arkansas, as well as the Gulf Coast States and in California. Some species, as the native "needle palm" have been known to survive temperatures below zero in their more northern habitat.

Many palms in the juvenile state have only grass-like leaves, and sometimes several years pass before the adult or "character" leaves are formed. For this reason, many seedling palms in yards and plantations in weeding operations because they are not recognized.

Palms are grown primarily in the United States, as ornamentals, but have many economic uses as well. For example, in Florida the native cabbage palm, Sabal palmetto, is used for fiber, and a factory at Jacksonville has used the cabbage palm for many years for the manufacture of brooms, brushes and novelty articles. Indians still make thatched roofs of palm leaves. Oil extracted from the fruits or seeds are used in the manufacture of soap, edible products, cosmetics, tin cans, synthetic rubber and many other everyday items with which we are so accustomed. Wax from the leaves of carnauba, is a basic ingredient of many kinds of polishes, carbon paper and phonograph records. Trunks are used for pilings and lumber. They are processed for use as wallboard, ropes and upholstery stuffing. Palms are used, you might say, for everything from "soup to nuts," "foundation to roof," inside the house and outside," and along the road side. It is no wonder the statement is made that "next to grasses the palm family is the most important in the plant kingdom from the standpoint of its usefulness to man."

"Never before has humanity been so greatly oppressed by so many wrongs," were the opening words of D. J. Thomas, district supervisor for Jehovah's Witnesses, in his lecture before 1319 in attendance for the climax of the 3-day convention at Bartow, Florida.

Repeating the question, "Is God interested in the affairs of men?" he said, "Yes, the crowning evidence of God's interest in men has been his provision for the rescue of obedient mankind. Especially now in these last days God is interested in man, especially right ones, those who love goodness."

On Saturday afternoon 12 new converts were totally immersed in water in symbol of their unreserved dedication to the principles of Almighty God and the upholding of his Word. The Bible. Among those immersed were Saleeta Hair from Belle Glade, Florida.

Bishop Louttit To Visit St. John's

This Sunday, February 12, the Right Reverend Henry I. Louttit, D. D., Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of South Florida, will make the annual bishop's visitation to the Church of St. John the Apostle. The Bishop will be in charge of both morning and evening services this Sunday. At seven o'clock, he will be the celebrant at the service of Holy Communion, assisted by the Vicar, the Reverend Robert N. Huffman. At the nine o'clock service, Bishop Louttit will administer the ancient and apostolic rite of Holy Confirmation, sometimes called the Laying on of Hands.

Immediately preceding the administration of the Sacrament of Holy Confirmation, the Bishop will bless the new memorial altar and Tabernacle, and a new hanging altar Cross. The Bishop will use ancient forms for the benediction of the Altar and its appointments, cast as prayers of thanksgiving, setting apart these furnishings for the glory of God and the service of His Church. This will be followed by the Order of Confirmation according to the Book of Common Prayer, after which Bishop Louttit will preach the sermon.

The memorial Altar and Tabernacle, of contemporary design, are made of white Georgia marble with golden vein. Attached to the Altar is a bronze plaque engraved with the dedication. "To the praise and glory of Almighty God in honor of Saint John the Apostle, and in memory of James H. DeGraw, 1943-1960." The Altar and Tabernacle are a memorial gift of the family and friends of Jimmy DeGraw.

Following his visitation at St. John the Apostle, Bishop Louttit will visit the Episcopal churches in Pahokee, Indian- town, and Okeechobee.

The three Baptist Choirs attending the Association Music Festival in West Palm Beach will be back with A ratings. These fine grades enables all three choirs to attend the District Festival in Delray Beach, Feb. 10-11, according to Brown Setterlind, Minister of Education and Music of the First Baptist Church.

The two smaller choirs will be going on Saturday morning and the Adult Choir will perform Friday night. The help of all mothers in transporting the children was greatly appreciated.

How many times has this man saved your life?

Like most of us, when the kids are in the car, you get that "extra careful" feeling. You know, that's the same way your friend—the service station dealer—feels when you stop by to see him.

Over the years, you've probably come to take your service station dealer pretty much for granted. But when your kids are riding with you, aren't you glad you took his advice and had your brakes checked? His suggestions—small though they may seem to be—may have saved your life more than once. His interest in your safety is more than interest in a customer—it's concern about a friend.

Find what a valuable "extra" if your own service station gives you S&H Green Stamps.

You know, of course, that half the families in America save them.

Your S&H Green Stamps make it possible for you to choose from over 1,500 top-quality, famous brand-name items at your S&H Green Stamp Redemption Store.

Your Library

There is more treasure in books than in all the pirates' loot on Treasure Island and at the bottom of the Spanish Main... and, the best of all, you can enjoy these riches every day of your life." Walt Disney.

This week Mrs. Ruth Clemons of the library board has chosen "Anna Teller" by Jo Sinclair for your reading pleasure. The seventy-four year old heroine of this magnificent novel is one of the most memorable women in modern fiction and Anna Teller is a giant step ahead for its highly praised, prize-winning author.

The coming to America of a Hungarian grandmother, who in 1899 fought in the streets of Budapest is the beginning of an absorbing story of conflict and the search for communication and understanding. Anna Teller's American son, his family and his friends visualize her as a great figure of courage, dignity and wisdom and believe that she will show them a way out of their tangled uncertain and unrewarding lives. As Eugene O'Neill puts it: "The past is the present, isn't it? The future, too. We all try to lie out of that, but little won't let us."
